"To you we offer our loyal affection"

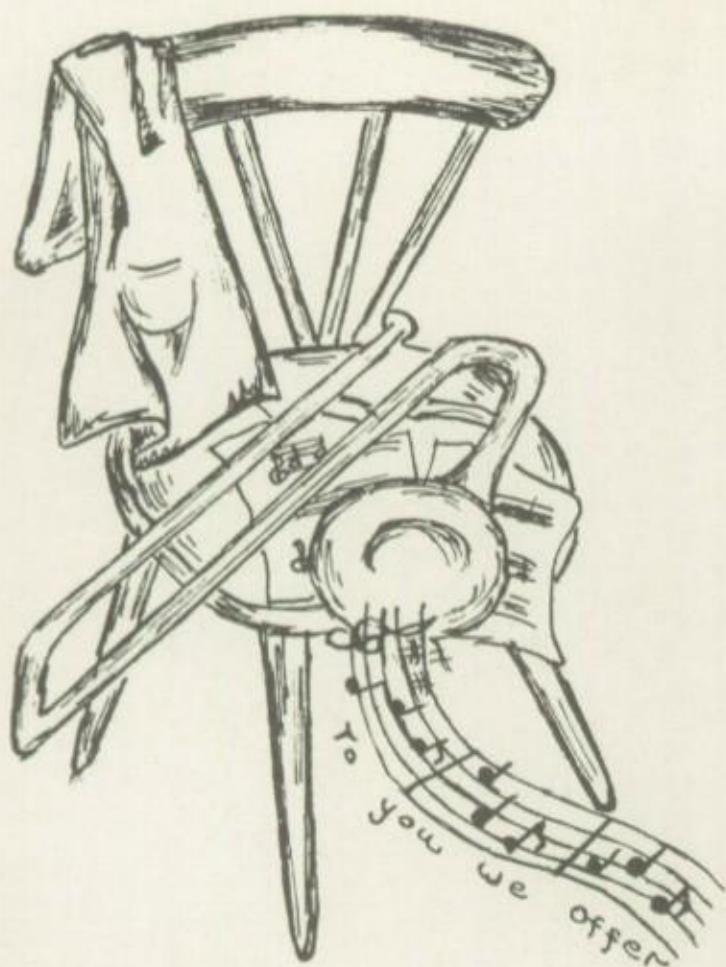

A decorative border made of musical staves with notes and lyrics. The lyrics include: "To you we offer our loyal affection", "and pledge allegiance John Marshall, to you", "our Alma Mater, your banners e'er waving", "In our memory your name shall not perish", "Far from your portals your students will be", "when on life's highway, the future will call us".

Foreword

"To you we offer our loyal affection."

It rings across the assembly, down the corridors; and into the hearts of all who listen. What is it? It is more than a song; it is Marshall's Alma Mater! It is more than a poem set to music. Behind these words is the intangible spirit of John Marshall.

This spirit can't be seen but it can be felt; it can't be heard, but it can be discovered; this spirit grows in those who enter the portals of Marshall to learn and to mature. The spirit gives the students the quest for knowledge, the desire for perfection, and the will to work. It has carried students through the hardships and pleasures that accompany school life, and will lead them out into the world. And now turn the page and review life with the spirit of John Marshall.

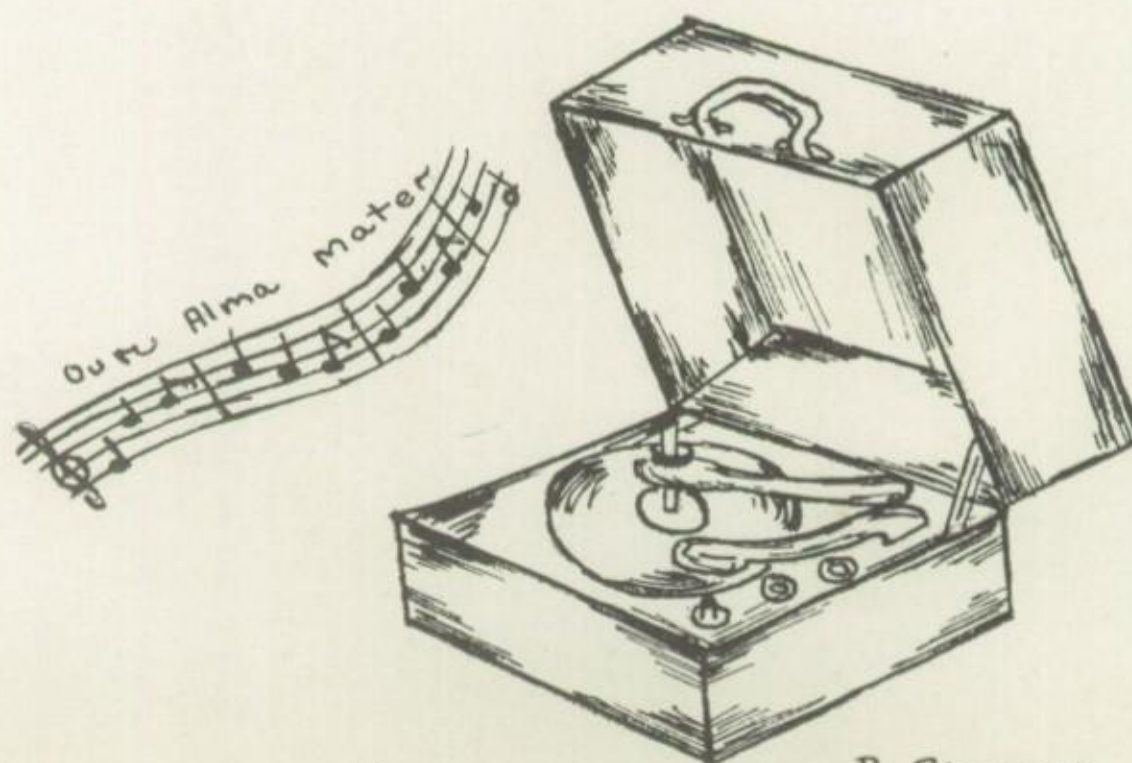

Dedication

To the spirit of John Marshall we dedicate this book.

To the intangible phenomena that transforms a building into a school, that gives sparkle to the assembly, pleasantness to the class rooms, and warmth to the corridors;

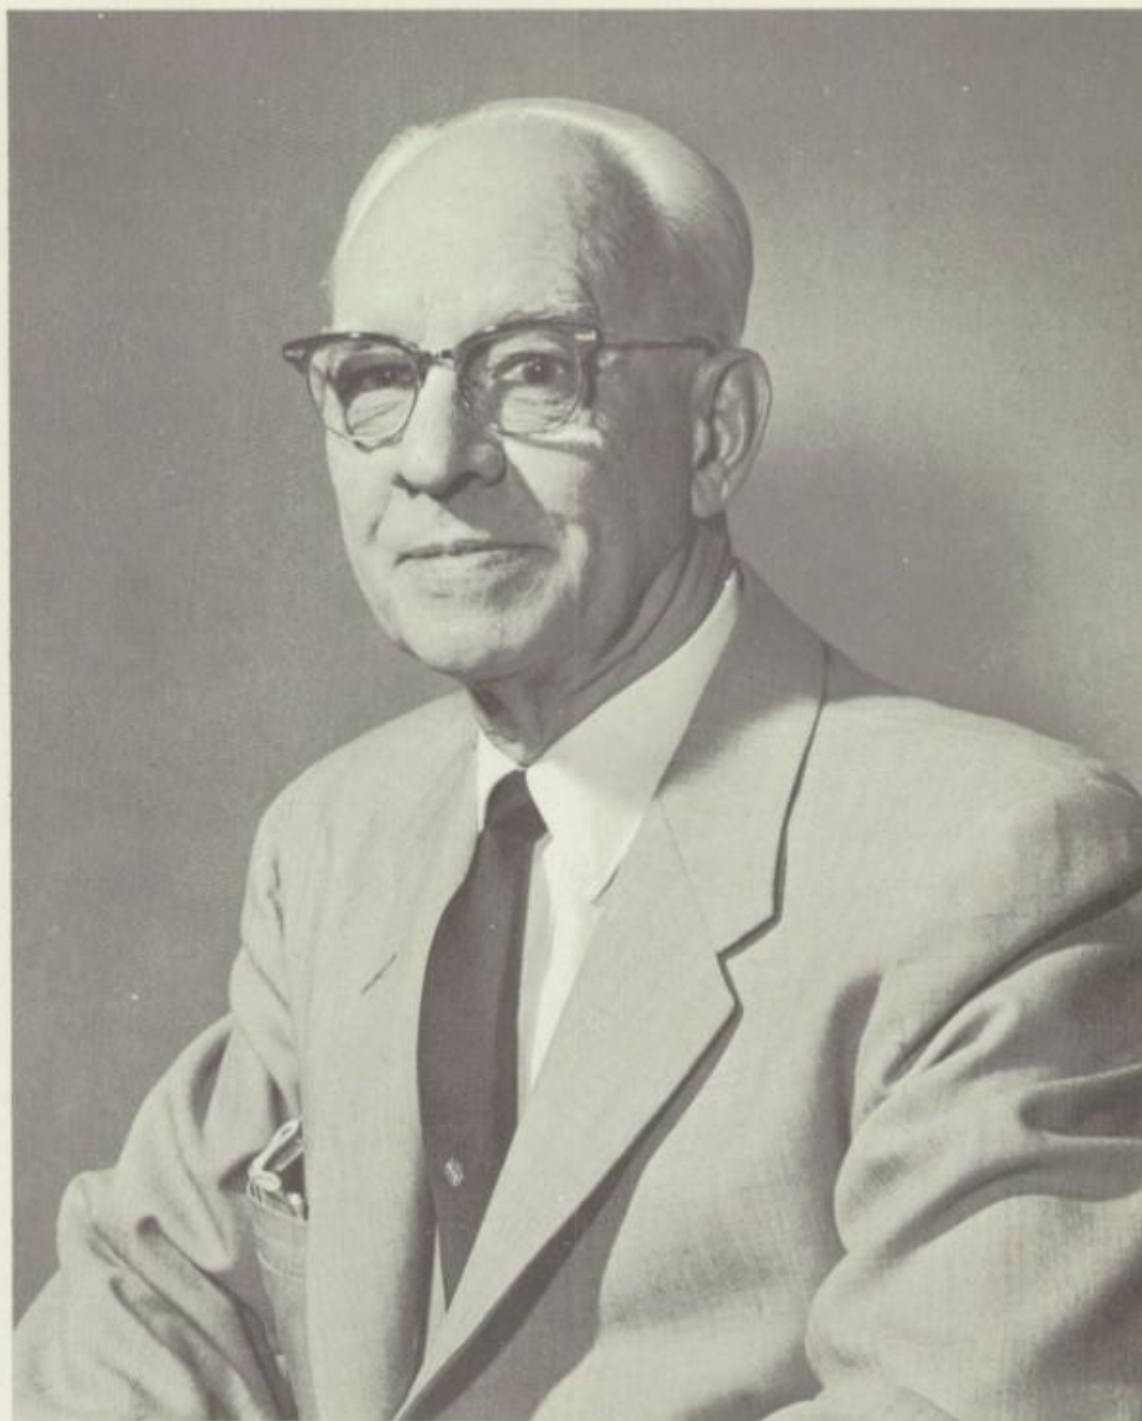

To the phantom that causes a friend to say "Hi"; that fills Marshallites with the will to win; that instills in our teachers the desire to excel; that gives the students the quest of truth;

To the spirit that makes John Marshall our Alma Mater, we dedicate the 1957 John Quill.

Top Tunes of John Marshall

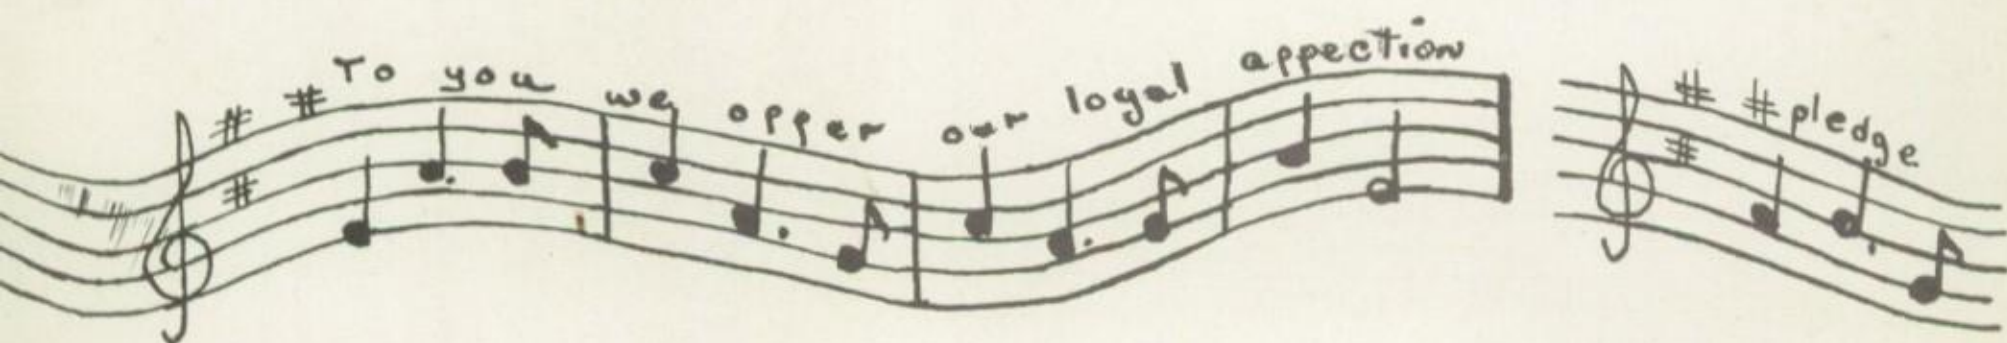

Do you reserve your album of school songs for special occasions? Or is it always on top of the pile? Playing these "hits" keeps you in tune with your school and your friends.

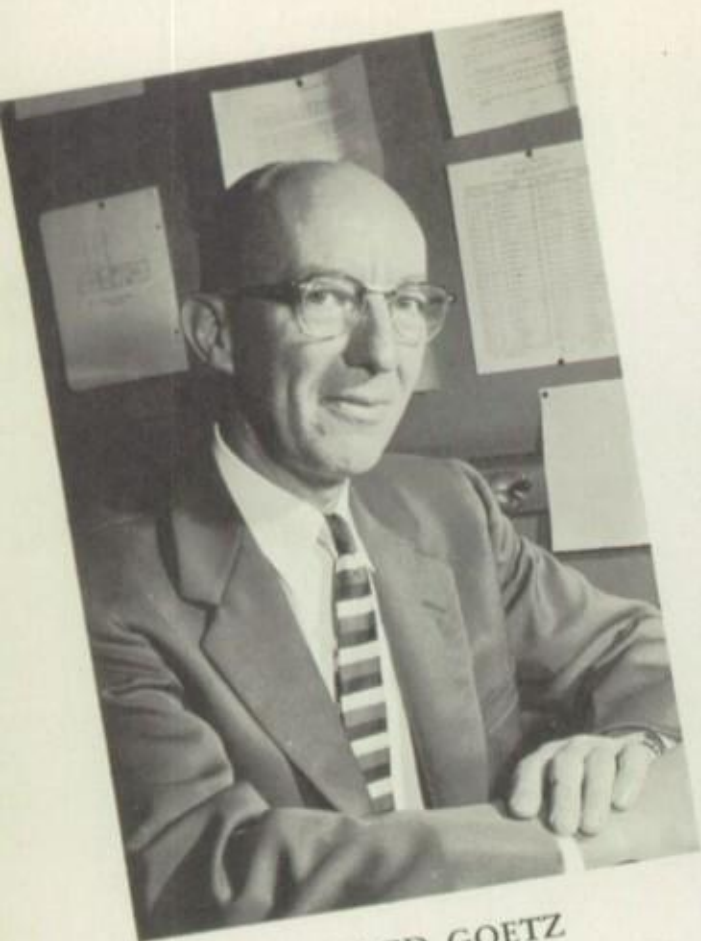

"On to victory we're marching" creates fighting spirit when joining ranks with your colleagues. Thus you build school morale and the sentiment, "In our memory your name shall not perish," gains a new meaning for you.

These top tunes pledge loyalty and affection and, when wholeheartedly played, they bring to this phase of your life a sense of satisfaction and achievement in which your school shares.

Marshall's Hidden Heroes

The lunchroom staff, with Mrs. Short as its head, ordered and prepared all food and served well-balanced lunches for the students.

Mr. Vandenberg and all custodians kept the school lighted, cleaned, and heated. They also kept the mechanical parts of the classrooms in good working condition.

"We will carry on Social Studies

The Social Studies Department undertook to create in the students an understanding of world problems through the study of American and world history, economics, and problems of democracy. The social studies 1 course gave the freshmen an understanding of the local, state, and federal governments, a basic prerequisite for good American citizens.

English

English, the basic subject in the high school curriculum, included such electives as Radio and Dramatics. The study of English was three-fold: the development of communication skills through training in speaking and writing and the interpretation of ideas through reading and literature, plus training in the art of listening. New recordings, tape-recordings, and motion pictures of literary works all added to the interest of these classes.

Mathematics

This year the mathematics department under the direction of Mr. Pflaum aimed not only to teach the subject matter but to train the pupils in the art of clear thinking. The courses offered included eighth and ninth grade math, plane and solid geometry, elementary, intermediate, and advanced algebra, and trigonometry.

Language

Marie Therese Godet, teenage diplomat from Tours, France, completely tape-recorded two text books used in the French classes, for better comprehension in French. America Cortes, student from Panama, did similar work in Spanish.

Because of the marked increase in registration in Latin this year, Mr. Leach was transferred to the Foreign Language Department.

Fine Arts

The aim of the art department this past year was self-expression through different media such as French water color, splash painting, sponge painting, and oil. Much of the work went into posters for special school events and the annual Scholastic Art Exhibit.

In the music department this year the Marshall Music Masters were reorganized and a new wood ensemble was formed.

The wood ensemble consisting of thirty-nine members was primarily formed for listening pleasure while the Music Masters, which had fifteen members, played for school dances.

Business

Many students were provided with practical business knowledge through the vocational subjects offered by our Business Department. Some of the job opportunities made available by this training were typist, stenographer, secretary, retail salesman, clerks, junior bookkeepers, and countless others. A special course offered for one semester, was Typing Special. In this course college preparatory students were able to obtain the fundamentals of typing.

CLOTHING

Practical Arts

The Practical Art Department this year consisted of classes in mechanical drawing, metals, woodworking, craft, and home economics. These classes were designed to show pupils the correct methods concerning the use and care of modern machines. The pupils were taught how to work with one another and to coordinate their hands and mind in solving problems confronting them in everyday life.

Students enrolled in the home economics classes were taught intelligent buying, good family relations, and kitchen practices.

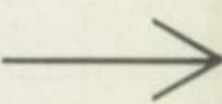

METALS SHOP

Science

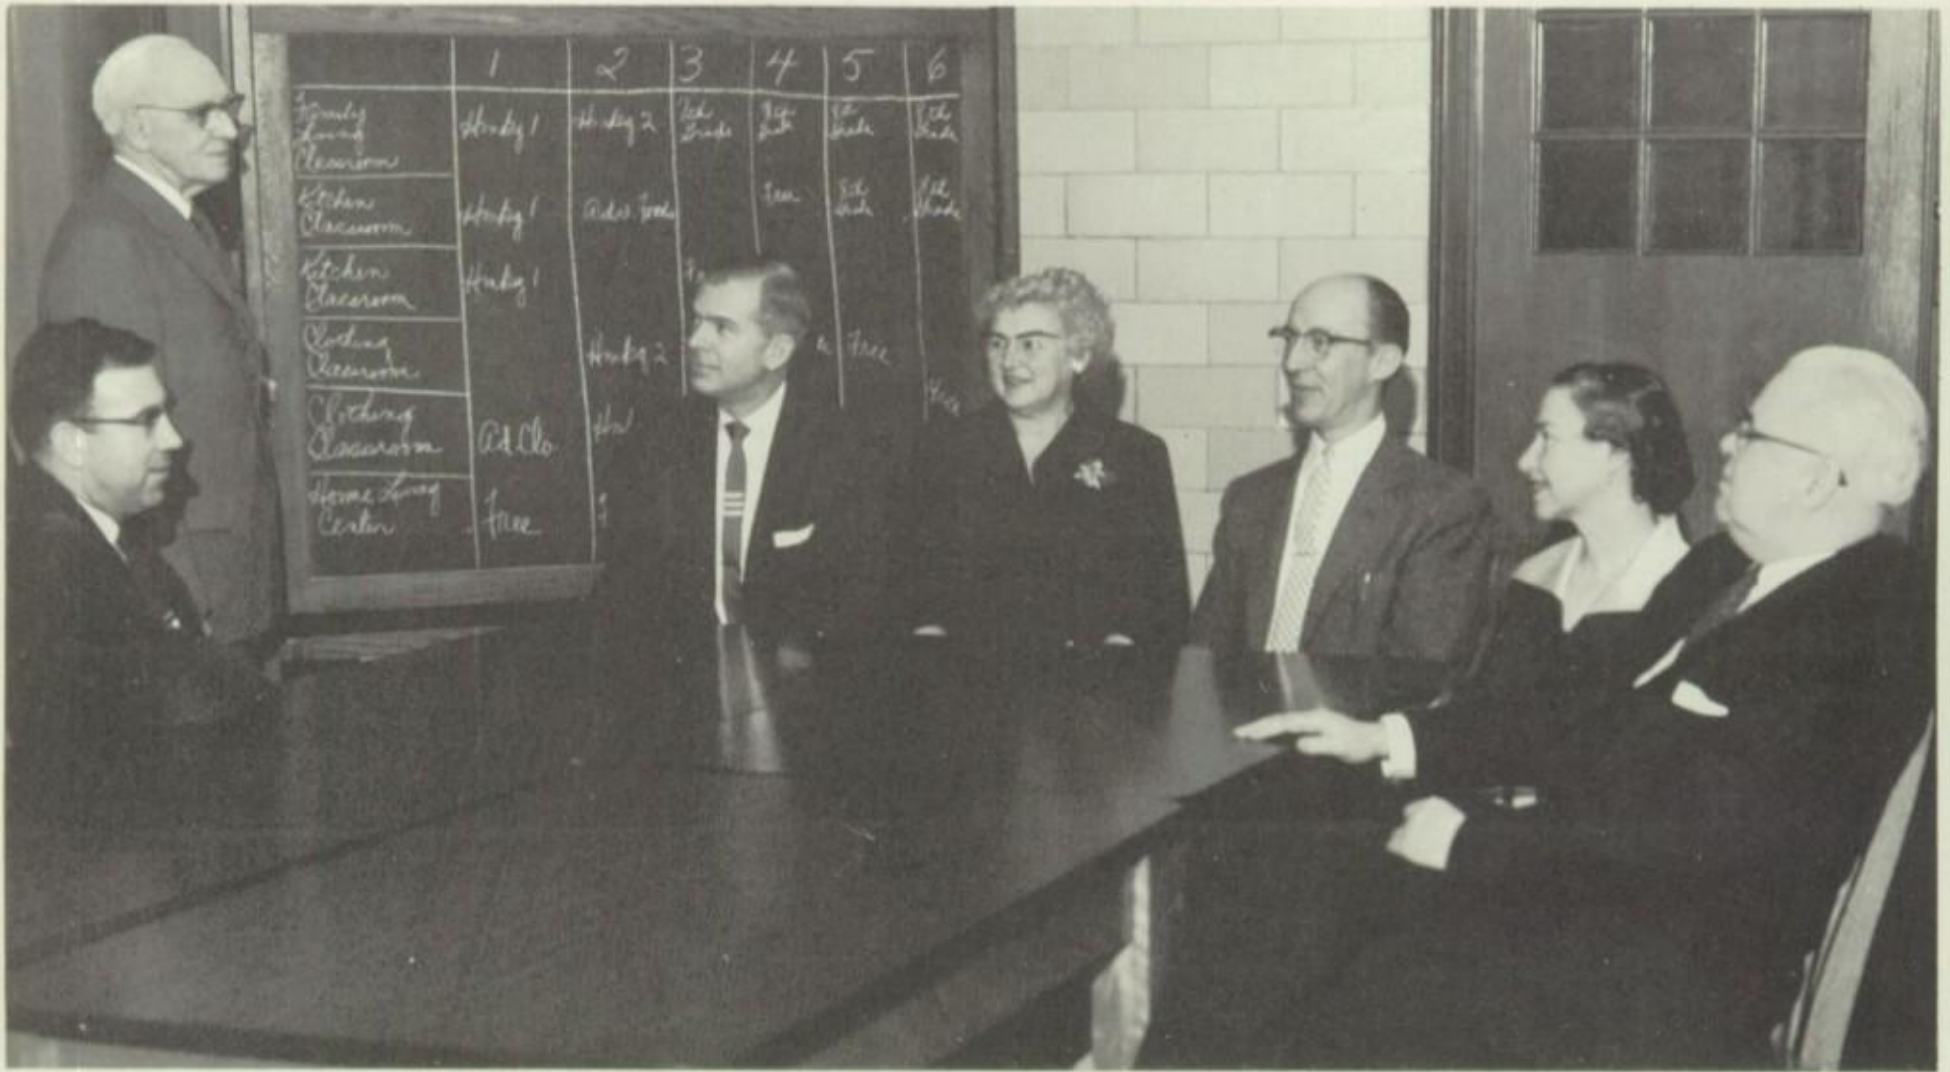

This year in our Science Department, survey tests were given to ninth grade students to discover achievement in the biological and earth sciences, as well as to discover special observations and reasoning skills. A new course, Life Science, was introduced into the curriculum and a special attempt was made to interest pupils in entering a career in science or engineering, in order to relieve the critical shortage in these fields.

Inspection trips were made by interested students to three industries near our school to see the scientist at work on his home ground.

Executive Council

The ruling branch of our student government, the executive council, was composed this year of the Student's Association officers, representatives of various grade levels, and the commissioners of various school activities. Under the skillful guidance of Mrs. Barry and Mr. Ulrich, faculty representatives, the council reviewed and discussed special events, school problems, and worthwhile student suggestions. The Halloween Hop, Snowball, Career Day and fund drives for needy organizations were all positive results of the legislation passed by this group.

National Honor Society

Membership in the John Marshall Chapter of the National Honor Society was again restricted scholastically to pupils in the top five per cent of the junior class and the top fifteen per cent of the senior class. Noel Kuhrt, Michael Reilly, and Carol Lewis were elected president, vice-president, and secretary, respectively. This year the regional conference of National Honor Societies was held at Marshall.

The Legislature, the law making body of our representative government at John Marshall, was made up of representatives from each homeroom. Merrill Herrick, Vice President of our Student's Association, presided over the meetings. He was under the guidance of Miss Turula and Mr. Goetz.

Each representative reported to the various homerooms the program and progress of the legislature. The legislative body played an important role in the success of the Red Cross Drive, the March of Dimes Drive, the Memorial Scholarship Drive, and the John Quill sales. The minutes and attendance records were kept by Gail Bush, the secretary of the Student's Association.

After every marking period, pupils filled out rating blanks which were collected and checked by the rating clerk of each homeroom. After the median and a list of the five highest ranking pupils was determined, the ratings were turned in to be rechecked by the commission under Mrs. Olmstead.

Service for

Forty-eight homerooms participated in the banking program. Each homeroom had a banking clerk who received the money and recorded it. There were four tellers in the banking office, who with the aid of Mr. Joseph Coccia, received the money and prepared it to be sent to the bank. The average amount taken in each Monday varied between $200 and $300.

Senior Choir

OFFICERS—Carol Martin, Marian Clark, David Heiligman, James Baird.

Impressive in their brilliant blue and gold robes, the Senior Choir, under the direction of Mr. Corwin with Mrs. Laura Remington as accompanist, added beauty and enjoyment to our assemblies.

The Choir, consisting of eighty-two tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade students had a most successful year. Outstanding in their schedule of events was an inspirational Thanksgiving Concert, and an appearance as guests of honor at Madison High School for their annual Christmas program.

The officers of the choir were David Heiligman, president; Jim Baird, vice-president; Carol Martin, secretary; and Marian Clark, wardrobe mistress.

Future Workers

The student behind the desk in the library worked there under Miss Hilfiker and Mrs. Uderitz. They took care of returned books, signed out books, and straightened the shelves.

Student secretaries assisted the faculty, serving as messengers, as secretaries, and typists.

Marshall's chapter of the Future Teachers of America elected Carol A. Lewis, president; Carol Andrews, vice president; Tessie Conocchioli, secretary; and Karen Geschwind, treasurer. This year through the Red Cross, the club made toys and favors for handicapped children. Miss Hilfiker served as club director.

Marshall's Y Clubs

John Marshall was well represented this year in "Y" groups, boasting two strong and active clubs. The girls' group Theta Sigma Eta Tri-Y, with Dorothy Harris as president, participated in several activities including dances, Christmas caroling, and visiting hospitalized children at Easter. Beta Hi-Y, with Mr. Wood as adviser, elected Michael Reilly as president. Among the boys' major projects was the painting of parking lines on the school parking area, undertaken early in September.

Football

Although the 3 wins, 3 losses, and 1 tie record didn't show it, the Jurists' football season was filled with thrills and excitement.

One of the most exciting wins for Marshall occurred against East, where the Jurists gridders were behind 15-12, with only twenty seconds remaining. Quarterback Pat McKeon faded back and threw a touchdown pass to Jerry Herring

The standout of the team was Don Haefele, Marshall halfback, who was selected to be on the All Scholastic first team. Other members of the team who won sectional berths were Don DellaVella, Mark Dick, John Armendinger, and Merrill Herrick.

Soccer

The Marshall booters came up this past season with four wins against four losses. Ably coached by Mr. Gerace, the team wound up the season in fourth place, just missing a sectional berth.

A decisive win over third place Charlotte, 3-2, was offset by untimely losses to Franklin, 2-1, and West, 5-3, who finished lower in the final standings than did the Jurists.

Several members of the team received All-Scholastic honors for their performances during the season. Ed Frearson and Dave Justice made the second team, and Dave Heiligman and Gordon MacPhearson made honorable mention.

Basketball

The 1956-57 edition of the basketball squad, under the guidance of Coach Bushnell and led by high-scoring Ron Carroll, plus other standouts, Dave Heiligman, Bob Higham, and Larry Heffer, acheived a tie for fifth place during the regular season.

Despite heartbreaking losses to Charlotte and Franklin, the Jurists came back with resounding wins over Edison, Jefferson, Monroe, and West.

Bowling

This year, along with Jefferson, Franklin, and Charlotte, the Jurists Keglers initiated the Northside Bowling League which competed at Domm's Alleys. Led by Captains George Brown and David Witcowski, the two varsity teams placed third and fourth respectively in the final standings. This new league provided keen competition among the contenders during the bowling season.

Gymnastics

A familiar sight in the halls of Marshall this past year, was the gymnast team, practicing under their coach, Rollo Hoffmeier. Included in the team was Noel Kuhrt, last year's novice champion at the Section V Winter Sports Carnival.

Swimming

This year's finmen under the capable piloting of Coach Tony Gerace, assisted by co-captains Dan Hamill and Jerry Herring, swam for a record of six wins and two losses in Interscholastic League competition.

The team this year consisted of many promising new tankmen, namely Bill Stegeman, Tom Brown, Dick Albrechet, Charlie Calhoun, Roger Wilmier, and Mike McRae. The newcomers were backed up by last year's veterans Dan Hamill, Jim Brown, Mike Reilly, Fred Rupp, and Jerry Herring.

After finishing third in the city, the finmen went on to place second in the Section V Class A Championships.

Track

As in years past, the Marshall Harriers put up a game fight for their league standing. Under the able coaching of Mr. Guglin, they closed the season with a 2 win, 6 loss record. Among the outstanding runners were Pete Crellin, Bruce Robinson, Rowland Bennett, Dick Maier, and Dick Colte.

Cross Country

The 1956 John Marshall track team, under the coaching of Mr. Davis, ended the season with a 2-6 record. Consistent winners on the team were David Heiligman in the "100" and "220"; Mike Walsh in the "440" and broad jump; and Gary Niedermaier in the "880" and high jump. Walsh won the city "440" championship and later went on to place in the sectionals.

Baseball

The 1956 Marshall baseball team, led by the hard hitting of all-scholastic choices, Phil Argento and Harry Doty compiled a 5 win 3 loss record for the season. Under the leadership of Coach Bushnell, the Jurists' diamond masters were in contention for the city title throughout the season.

The pitching corps, consisting of Al Maccallini, Herb Gregory, and Ron Spring, was ably handled by catcher Jerry Herring.

Highlight of the season was the win over West High.

Alma Mater

To you we offer our loyal affection,
And pledge allegiance, John Marshall, to you;
Our Alma Mater, your banners e'er waving,
Always the vict'ry to you.

When on life's highway, the future will call us,
Far from your portals your students will be;
But in our mem'ry your name shall not perish;
Marshall, we pledge loyalty.
